From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Mon, 9/14/2015 7:29:15 AM
Subject: In today's FT: Corbyn picks hard-leftshadow chancellor, Migrant in...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Monday September 14 2015

UK HOMEPAGE

Corbyn picks hard-left shadow chancellor

Labour leader's appointment of McDonnell likely to alarm City and business

Migrant influx sparks German clampdown

Berlin applies emergency border controls in 'signal to Europe' as refugee crisis intensifies

Symphony taps Dow Jones to take on Bloomberg

Newswire joins Wall Street-backed messaging rival to Bloomberg

VIDEO

The allure of university halls

Student accommodation in the UK was nothing to write home about a decade or two ago but it has improved in recent years. Lex's Jonathan Eley and Oliver Ralph discuss why there is a boom and whether it is an investment opportunity.

US HOMEPAGE

Fed guidance splits markets over rate rise

Conflicting messages from divided officials pose test for Yellen

Fears grow over US stock market bubble

Nobel laureate Robert Shiller highlights risks of overvalued stocks

BIS warns of faultlines in global economy

Settlement bank thinks emerging market problems partly result of ultra-low borrowing since 2008

EUROPE HOMEPAGE

Berlin eyes EU-wide transactions tax

German finance minister Schäuble wants tax to apply to all members in spite of UK opposition

Shell CEO says BG deal risk is overstated

Van Beurden insists dividend is safe despite 'outrageous' yield and investor fears

Tsipras faces formidable opponent

Interim leader of Greece's centre-right party rattles Syriza in tight general election battle

ASIA HOMEPAGE

Russia looks to casino to revive far east

Lured by tax benefits, Macao gambling tycoon invests hundreds of millions in Vladivostok

Franklin Templeton sees record outflows

Large retail component makes asset manager vulnerable to emerging market jitters

Asian markets: all about the Fed

WORLD NEWS

Global warming alert as El Niño simmers

Scientists report signs that pause in world's heating may be over

German exporters face China slowdown

Concern that deep trade links with Beijing could affect recovery at home

McDonnell poised to come out fighting

New shadow chancellor has Tories' trade union bill in his sights

Irish step up case for UK to stay in EU

Dublin worries 'Brexit' would damage trade and N Ireland settlement

Riksbank head warns on crisis policies

Ingves says central bank's job is to deal with inflation while government must fix housing market

COMPANIES NEWS

Star Capital sells Pepcom in €608m deal

Transaction will consolidate Germany's third and fourth-largest cable operators

Japan Post by the numbers

Flotation of sprawling state-owned financial and logistics business is no ordinary privatisation

Iraq to tap international bond markets

Success of Baghdad's first issuance since end of US occupation likely to depend on Fed rate rise

Carmakers braced for end to growth run

Frankfurt motor show to open amid concerns about Chinese and US markets

Telecoms groups urge price cap rethink

Ofcom warned that open access to BT's network with artificial price cap could harm investment plans

MARKETS

Value investors heading back into Brazil

Flurry of take-private deals seen as 'vote of confidence'

McDermott takes up reins at FCA

Interim head of UK regulator faces challenges

US Fed set to consider interest rate rise

A rise, the first in nearly a decade, now seems unlikely, but is far from out of the question

Corner shops face new supermarket battle

Industry set for long-term overhaul as customers demand fresher food from local convenience stores

UK pensions face billion-pound bill

European solvency rules expected to pose a ‘big threat’ to retirement schemes

COMMENT

Joe Biden: the Hamlet of 2016

Vice-president emerges as Democrats’ best insurance to a Clinton implosion

Corbyn win tilts balance towards Brexit

Leftwing leader upturns assumptions of Labour support for Tory government on the EU

Europe’s leftwingers swim in cold waters

The right dominates the political space outside the weakened main parties, writes John Lloyd

Money-making scheme must be made of stronger stuff

Most of the macroeconomic effect of QE has already occurred

The black gold beneath the surface of pop

Since its discovery, oil has cast a spell over the human imagination, writes Ludovic Hunter-Tilney

MANAGEMENT

Gerry Harvey: blunt, even by Aussie rules

The boss of the Harvey Norman store chain lambasts politicians and ecommerce evangelism

Am I a good parent? Don’t ask me — or UBS

The bank’s advertisements pose a difficult question — one I have avoided asking myself for 24 years

The introvert and extrovert dream team

Advice for making opposites attract and getting the best results

Feedback: BA jet fire and carry-on bags

Readers suggested improvements to the evacuation process

Manage email | Forward this email

Feedback | Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2015

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.
This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.
Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.